KMT ORGANIZES ANTI-CCP UPRISINGS

Taihoka, 5 September (CKA) -- The Chinese people who are suffering under the Communist bandits are rising up to combat their oppressors. They are inflicting heavy damage on the CCF in Anhwei, Fiangeu and Chekiang. This is admitted in the CCP broadcasts.

In the K'ai-feng and Cheng-chon areas the efforts of KMT behind-tha-lines forces are by no means negligible. COP sources report over 2,500 men in the Cheng-chou area enrolled in groups organized by KMT special agents and report the capture of 73 transmitters in the two cities as well as 1,000 rifles and five heavy machine guns. Because of this the Communist authorities called a special public security conference.

A great deal of damage to traffic has been tafficted by opposition forces operating along the Lung-hai Railroad. Commun.st cources report large bands of dissidents operating in Hozan. There are reported to be over 170 of these organizations operating under such names as I-kuan Tao, T'ung-t'ien Tao, Chungyang Hui, Miao Tao, Hung Asueh, and Huang Hetieh.

At the Men-t'ou-kou coal miner near Pei-p'ing there have been several fires during recent months. The result has been that the leaders of every section of the mines have been made individually responsible for preventing trouble in their units. Walls have been built around the mines and special fire drills held.

The Shang-kai Chieh-fang Jih-pao of 7 September 1949 reported a Han-k'ou dispatch as follows: In the liberated areas only the upper stratum of KMT political power has been disturbed; armed bands and secret operatives are everywhere. Feudalistic authority still controls the rural areas. There is still a systematized armed resistance.
